

Government of Karnataka
Department of Collegiate Education
Government First Grade College Bannur

(Annexure-2.11)
Criterion 02

Course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the Institution

Name of the Programme	Name of the Course	Programme Outcomes
BA	History	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Students will study our history, culture and heritage in depth. 2) Students will also study world ancient history, archaeology. 3) It helps them in taking competitive and civil service exams. 4) Students can become responsible citizens of this country by knowing great heritage, ancestors' achievements and also can learn lessons from their mistakes.
	Economics	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students will study structure of Indian economy, principles of micro and macro economics, basics of statistics, international economics, development process etc. 2. The subject will enable them to be more employable in banking, financial, insurance and other academic research institutions. 3. Students can even get through competitive exams like Indian Economic Service. 4. Students will get awareness about national income/GDP computation, inflation rate, unemployment, poverty, sustainable development, population growth rate etc which are the burning issues and challenges of any country. 5. Students will be aware of international institutions like IMF, World Bank and WTO etc which will make them more knowledgeable about international on goings.
	Political Science	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The endeavour of studying political science is to find a good form of governance for the benefit of all. 2) The study of PS promotes the welfare of nation in creation of good governance, administrative structure and unity in diversity. 3) The Students will learn constitution, political systems, international relations and other countries political systems which will enable them to get through competitive exams and also make them better citizens of this country.
	Sociology	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Students will learn social systems, social conditions and will promote better weaving social fabric of India which is diversified and needs unification. 2) Students can have better knowledge about our societal conditions and will be aware of how to eradicate social evils. 3) The subject is mother of all social sciences and students will contribute to the betterment of societal growth. 4) Students also learn social institutions and their functioning specially in rural areas which will make them to understand better our rural India. 5) Students will study changing family systems and influence of western culture.

		6) Students will be aware of urban problems and women empowerment and their impact on overall growth. 7) Students will learn the status of SC and SC, Minorities and their social conditions. 8) To enable students to cope effectively with the socio cultural and interpersonal process of a constantly changing complex society.
	Geography	1) Students will acquire an understanding of an appreciation for the relationship between geography and culture. 2) Students will read, interpret and generate maps and other geographic representation as well as extract, analyse and present information from a spatial perspective. 3) Students will have a general understanding of geographic processes, the global distribution of landforms and eco systems and the role of physical environment on human populations. 4) Students will have a general understanding of various theoretical and methodological approaches in both physical and human geography and be able to develop research questions and critically analyse both qualitative and quantitative data to answer those questions.
	Languages English and Kannada	1) Students here learn linguistic like Kannada and English which will enrich their knowledge about language, literature