FEEDBACK REPORTS 2017 -2018

ANALYSIS OF THE FEEDBACK RECEIVED FROM THE STUDENTS 2017-18

1. ON TEACHERS:

An analysis of the Feedback received from the students indicates that almost all the teachers have scored a Grade Point Average above 90%. Hence, it is clear that the students are happy about the teachers' performance. Teachers who have scored below 90%, have been informed about the same and a corrective measure shall be taken by them to improve the scoring. Principal has informed every teacher individually about the Grade Point Average scored by them.

2. ON FACILITIES:

An analysis of the Feedback received from the students on facilities indicates that they are happy with the various facilities provided in the college within the available resources. On an average all facilities have scored an average score of more than 60%. Some facilities such as Library, Extra-curricular activities, Scholarships, Cleanliness have been well appreciated by them. However, Principal has taken due care to improvise upon the facilities in the campus.

3. ON COURSES:

An analysis of the Feedback received from the students on courses indicates that they are happy with their courses such as BA, B.Com, BBM, B.Sc and BCA as the GPA scored for each course is more than 60%. However, B.Sc. students have expressed their dissatisfaction on the course content by giving less scores aggregating only 60%. On the other hand students of other streams are satisfied with their syllabus and the relevance of the subjects.
