04-10-2016

A special lecture on “ Management of Banking Operations” was arranged for the MBA Students on 04-10-2016 at 11am. Mr S Shankara, the Circle RBO Head of Axis Bank, Bangalore addressed the students on the said subject. The students had an opportunity to know about how the banking operations take place in this era of information technology. The speaker inspired the students to enter into the banking sector and gave information relating to the expectations of the industry from the students. The practical aspects relating to functioning of the banks as explained by the speaker inspired the students very much. Thus the session was interesting and informative. Welcome and vote of thanks were delivered by the student representatives of the department Miss Ashwini D S and Miss Kalashree.
