The Department of Commerce, Department of Management and the IQAC of the college jointly organized a special lecture program on "Career as Company Secretary". The resource person was a practicing Company Secretary with rich experience in the chosen field and who had served earlier as President and in various capacities in the Mysuru Chapter of CS including teaching the CS students in the Chapter. He explained in detail why students may opt for CS program, its comparative advantages, program period, its various phases, fee structure and job opportunities. He compared the prospects for a degree or a Master's graduate with that of a CS professional and enlightened the students about the merits of the CS program. He also gave information to students regarding completing the Masters in IGNOU when they have qualified for CS. The students interacted with the speaker and asked a number of queries like age limit for completion of CS program, the number of attempts allowed, type of question paper, method of awarding marks and the like. Many students showed keen interest in pursuing the program. The program was held in the college auditorium. Prof. Somanna, the Principal, presided over the program and encouraged the students to interact with the speaker as listening to a practitioner is more helpful for their career building than merely reading from text books or learning inside the classroom. Dr. Kantharju, the HOD of Management department presented the introductory remarks, Dr. Nalini R, the B Com department was the chief guest, Sri. Sathya murthy was the program coordinator of the event. The student representatives Miss. Bhavya of Final BBA 'A' and Miss. Yashaswini of Final BBA 'B' delivered the welcome address and proposed the vote of thanks.
