

Govt. First Grade College Mudhol

Program Specific Outcomes- BSW (Under Graduation)

On Completion of the B.S.W. students are able to __

- Understand the concepts, scope and importance, and principles of social work
- Understand various fields of social work i.e. community development, labour welfare, Personnel management & industrial relations, human resource management, family and child welfare, medical and psychiatric social work, tribal welfare etc.
- Learn about methods of social work: Casework, Group work, Community Organization, Social action, Social work research, social welfare administration
- Understand social problems/ issues and disorganization in society through Field work and research dissertation.
- Learn about research methodology in social work.
- Understand in detail about major social institutions, new policies and trends of social change
- Understand in detail about gender and society, social movement and social welfare in India
- Developed professional ethics and skills code of code of conduct behavior with client.
- The students give chance developed the various skills in order developed their understanding relate theory practice and for their professional development
- Students have demonstrated the ability to practice according to the value base of the profession and its ethical standards and principles

Aspirants who want to undertake BSW course need to be well aware of the social problems of the area wherein they work and also possess good communication skills.

Some other key skills that an aspirant should possess when thinking of pursuing a BSW course are listed below:

Empathy	Good listener
Good communication skills	Emotional intelligence
Social perceptiveness	Tolerance
Critical thinking	Ability to coordinate
Self-awareness	Ability to set boundaries
Integrity	Persuasion

Program outcomes- BSW (Under Graduation)

- To build a foundation in Social Work among the undergraduate students. This will be developed further, when they choose to do an MSW programme.
- To sensitize the student community on all the social issues prevailing in the society.
- Students have demonstrated theoretical knowledge supported by empirical evidence for understanding behavior across the life span of multiple client systems and their interactions. Students have demonstrated the knowledge, values, and skills to be critical consumers of research for effective practice and to possess basic skills to evaluate their practice.
- To offer theoretical and practical knowledge on subjects relevant to nation development, such as Economic and Political system, Social Responsibility and good governance, Human rights and Social legislation.
- To inculcate social values among the students, so that they become the change agents for the betterment of the society.
- To develop leadership skills in the students by means of organizing camps and programmes, so that they become the future leaders of the nation.
- To make the students culture sensitive to the social change that is happening and be aware of upholding the societal culture.
- To inspire the students to participate in social activities. This will promote them to involve in citizen participation.
- Students have applied critical thinking skills within the context of professional social work practice.
- Students have demonstrated the ability to effectively use supervision and consultation appropriate to social work practice.
- To motivate the students in micro level and macro level social work practice in Government and Non-Government organizations.
- To mould the students into active social workers by integrating theory to practice.
- To safeguard the Social work profession by upholding the ethical principles religiously.