'I resemble everyone/ but myself'

My profession encourages me to choose the less travelled path. I dare to say that I am an enthusiastic academic professional with creative thoughts in making my students competent in the present world of challenges. My works make the students potential and my literary rendition keeps them to be humane.

'LET'S MAKE THE STUDENTS TALK'

Functional English, a Programme designed for the students in a practical way of understanding everyday words their uses and applying them in formal and informal contexts, in the workplace.

Functional English is a learning process of the English language required to perform in a specific situation. The format includes 'virtual' communication methods such as 'event conducting' 'telephonic conversation', everyday situations like 'address seeking', 'weather forecast', etc.
